Humana acquires Assistans på Gotland

Humana acquires assistance company Assistans på Gotland AB. The acquisition strengthens Humana's position within personal assistance in Gotland.

Assistans på Gotland is based in Visby and is a merger of former Wisby Assistans and Assistans på Gotland. The company's full-year revenue amounts to approximately SEK 56 million and the company has approximately 115 employees.

- Assistans på Gotland is a quality company that offers personalised personal assistance focused on the customer. The company shares our core values and will complement our existing operations in Gotland in a very good way, Andreas Westlund, Business Area Manager Personal Assistance at Humana said.

- The acquisition reflects our confidence in the personal assistance market and strengthens our position in Gotland. I look forward to developing the business further together with our new colleagues and to help more people to a good life, Andreas Westlund said.

- Becoming a part of the care company Humana, we secure the future for both customers and employees. Humana is a company with high quality standards, which shares our core values and have the resources to develop the operations. We look very much forward to becoming a part of Humana, Carina Funck, founder of Wisby Assistans and owner of Assistans på Gotland said.

Humana has entered an agreement to acquire all the shares in Assistans på Gotland AB. The transfer will take place on June 1 with the business being included in Humana's Personal Assistance business area.
