LSS-housing: Humana wins tender in Växjö

From November 1st 2017, Humana will be taking over the operation of Vingavägen's special service housing in accordance with LSS in Växjö, Sweden.

Humana has won a tender for operating the Vingavägen's special service housing in accordance with LSS in Växjö. Vingavägen can accommodate six individuals in need of special support. The contract was based on an evaluation of quality and price, where quality accounted for 60% and price 40%. Humana received the highest quality rating, and at the same time had the most competitive price, which made Humana a clear winner.

The contract runs to 2020-10-31 with the possibility of a 4 year extension.

- We are proud that our daily focus on quality of care is also reflected in this procurement. Now we look forward to presenting ourselves and our way of working when we start the takeover process. Our focus will then be to make clients, families and staff feel secure with us and involve them in Humana's strong values and culture, says Emanuel Södervall, Regional Manager, Humana.
