Humana implements changes to Group executive management

Humana continues to implement the earlier communicated Sweden organisation to increase the organisation's efficiency, which leads to changes in the Group executive management.

The Swedish organisation is led by Sweden Manager Nathalie Boulas Nilsson, who is also President and CEO of Humana Group. The Swedish organisation will be represented in Group executive management also by the business area managers for Individual and family as well as Personal Assistance, respectively.

This means that, Titti Lilja, Business Area Manager Individual and Family, will be a member of Group executive management and Hans Dahlgren, Business Area Manager Personal Assistance and Director of Communications, will remain in Group executive management in the role of Business Area Manager Personal Assistance.

Humana intends to implement the change on the 1st of January 2025.
